SOUTH CAROLINA DEVELOPMENTAL DI SABILITIES COUNCIL CHAIRPERSON

Frank Bentley, Chairperson

Each year I am amazed to see the progress the DD Council makes towards fulfilling the state plan goals. As information is shared through workshops, conferences and seminars, self-advocates, parents, care-givers and disability workers become more passionate regarding advocating for the needs of people with disabilities.

The stories of improved mobility, greater interaction, more inclusion, being a part of programs and community events and working with legislators to improve access and information continue to be reasons I personally serve on the DD Council. As the Chairperson, I am honored to serve with people who display so much passion. The daily struggles overcome by self-advocates inspires the DD Council to continue to sponsor programs designed to enhance the lives of people with disabilities and their families throughout the state. These programs are aiding self-advocates and their families to become stronger and gain more independence. A special “Thank you” to every grantee as they continue to strive for excellence and push the boundaries for people with developmental disabilities. As we continue in our efforts, I also want to thank those professional individuals, agencies and organizations who push to find evidence-based programming geared to produce results. These efforts make it easier for the DD Council to make decisions and continue to produce positive results statewide. Thank you to each and every one who makes this job so easy!

2017-2018 DD Council Allocation of Resources

Executive Director, Valarie Bishop

Message from the Executive Director

2018 was another exciting year of working with our grantees, collaboration partners and stakeholders. We continue to stretch boundaries and make change alongside individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities and their families.

Our collaborations allow us to be a force for positive systems change and enhanced advocacy for our state. I am proud of the leadership programs we support that give individuals and family members a public voice, promote pride and empowerment and distribute vital information and resources. I am energized by our work with many of our community partners to develop creative and effective strategies to best support people with intellectual disabilities/ developmental disabilities and their families.

I would like to say thank you to everyone who has contributed to our success and look forward to continuing to grow partnerships and build on the foundations of our work together.
